

Five Heroes

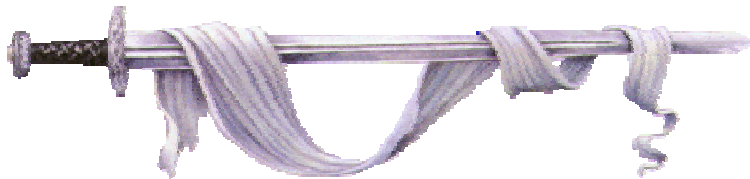

Below are stats for a small band of heroes that have been adventuring for some time together. Geoff and Sironi will always stay back and pick off targets with their longbows. Brazen and Tzark excel at hand-to-hand combat, with Peter providing them close range support. All are friends, and would die for each other.

Possible scenario ideas might be a dungeon crawl, scouting out an abandoned village, or rescuing Peter from capture due to his thieving profession.
